

CLARE KILLIKELLY

Current position: Clinical Post-Doctoral Researcher, Division of Psychopathology and Clinical Intervention, University of Zurich; Clinical Psychologist, University of Zurich, Outpatient Psychology Department

Registration: Health Care Professionals Council (HCPC) UK

EDUCATION

- 2013-2016 King's College London (UK) – Doctorate in Clinical Psychology,
Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology and Neuroscience
Thesis: The effect of self-monitoring using novel mobile technology on metacognition in people with schizophrenia PI: Prof Dame Til Wykes
- 2008-2012 University of Cambridge (UK) – PhD in Experimental Psychology
Centre for Neuroscience in Education
Thesis Dynamic Psychophysiological Change in Cognitive Control across the Adult Lifespan: ERP and EMG studies PI: Dr Denes Szucs, Advisor: Prof Trevor Robbins
- 2007-2008 University of Cambridge (UK) - MPhil in Psychology and Education
Centre for Neuroscience in Education
Thesis An examination of the cued numerical Stroop task using electromyography and the lateralized readiness potential technique PI: Dr Denes Szucs
- 2002-2006 McGill University (Canada) - BA in Psychology (with distinction)
Thesis Rat Ultrasonic Vocalizations as a measure of Affective State in CTA Paradigm PI: Prof Norman White

RESEARCH POSITIONS

- 2016-present Post-Doctoral Research Associate, Division of Psychopathology and Clinical Intervention, University of Zurich.
Developing cross cultural assessments and interventions for individuals with disordered grief.
- 2012-2013 Post-Doctoral Research Associate, Department of Psychiatry, University of Cambridge in collaboration with CPFT, CUHT NHS trusts.
Assessed cognitive function, symptomatology and well-being in patients with psychosis; evaluated a newly developed cognitive remediation program for patients with psychosis/schizophrenia; developed a similar program for other patient groups (Alzheimer's, MCI)
- 2009-2011 Research Assistant, University of Cambridge (UK)
Employed by the Centre for Neuroscience and Education to collect data for a variety of experiments using EEG, EMG and fNIRS technology in children and adolescents with Dr Denes Szucs, Prof Usha Goswami and Prof Trevor Robbins
- 2006- 2007 Research Assistant, University of Victoria (Canada)
Tested control subjects on the cognitive Stroop test at Neuropsychology Lab. Experience running and analyzing cognitive tests including the Stroop test and Facial recognition tests with Dr Bub
- Summer 2006 Research Assistant, McGill University (Canada)
Employed at McGill University analyzing memory systems involved with addiction in rats using the conditioned taste aversion assay with Prof Norman White
- Summer 2005 Research Assistant, University of Victoria (Canada)
Employed by Centre for Addictions Research CARBC researching and writing a literary review on polysubstance abuse for a multi-million dollar grant proposal with Professor Tim Stockwell

Division Psychopathology and Clinical Intervention
Binzmühlestr. 14/17 CH-8050 Zürich Switzerland
email: c.killikelly@psychologie.uzh.ch phone: +41 044 63 57309

CLINICAL POSITIONS

- 2016 to present Clinical Psychologist, Outpatient service, University of Zurich Psychology Department. Provide mental health assessment and CBT based therapeutic interventions for individuals suffering from trauma, anxiety and/or depression.
- 2013-2016 Clinical Psychologist in Training, South London and Maudsley (SLaM) NHS
Over 2800 hours of face to face clinical work with service users and over 200 hours of individual clinical supervision.
- 2012-2013 Research Neuropsychologist, NHS Neurology Clinic, Addenbrooke's Hospital
Assessed cognitive function, symptomatology and well-being in patients with suspected dementia and/or normal pressure hydrocephalus; evaluated a newly developed mobile cognitive assessment tool
- 2011- 2012 Applied Behavioural Analysis Tutor, Cambridge (UK)
Behavioural and psycho-educational intervention young children with autism; confidence building; anxiety management;